Background

The United Network of Young Peacebuilders is a unique global network of youth peace organisations, promoting the participation of young people in peacebuilding around the world. We connect more than 100 youth peace organizations across 50 countries.

For the first time in its history, the United Network of Young (UNOY) Peacebuilders will bring together its 110 members during the General Assembly (GA), taking place from 18-24 June 2020 in the Netherlands. It is a timely moment to do so, as we will celebrate the 30th anniversary of UNOY, the 5th anniversary of Security Council Resolution 2250, and the end of the current Strategic Plan.

Through interactive and non-formal education methods, the GA will harness the energy, knowledge and input from members in order to create an ambitious and robust Strategic Plan for UNOY.
